

When something is going on with a student, it can be hard to get the full picture. You don't have to do it alone.

Student assistance professionals are there to help when you have concerns about a student. They will work with you, the student, and the student's family to develop a complete picture of what's going on and engage resources to help.

www.underageddrinking.samhsa.gov

#TalkTheyHearYou

SAMHSA
Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration

PEP20-03-01-069